

Easily produce high-quality video content for a variety of applications with fast and cost-effective transcoding in the cloud

Things to know about Flip Service:

Cloud native encoding that processes your media where it resides

Multi-cloud capable – AWS, Google, Azure, IBM

Highly reliable performance at 99.9% reliability

Telestream Cloud offers a suite of complementary value-add services such as QC ensuring high quality media output and Time Text Speech

Flexible and competitive pricing
• Consumption offers and lower 'pro format' offerings

Instant start with user-friendly web console. Easy media processing automation through watch-folders and API

Broad range of supported formats including XDCAM, ProRes, DNxHD

Tachyon standards conversion available

Ideal for: Vantage Customers

- ✓ For content creators, providers and video producers with scalable quality transcoding needs
- ✓ Digital media/media businesses that already operate in the cloud
- ✓ Web developers that need a SaaS service to handle incoming/outgoing file processing

telestream | cloud
Flip

A SaaS platform that provides a variety of digital media processing services in the cloud. It operates across multiple cloud service providers and within numerous geographic regions.

Additional information is available on cloud.telestream.net/flip

telestream